Re: Synca Direct, Inc. v. MultiMedia Dental Systems, Inc.;
U.S. Dist. Ct. No. Dist., New York Civil Action No. 06-CV-1263-LEK/DRH

Dear Mr. Owens:

I returned the Waiver of Service form yesterday, and today or tomorrow we will be filing our Answer and Counterclaim. Because a comparison of your client's Source Code with that of MultiMedia Dental's Source Code and an examination of your client's product will be important to the determination of our respective clients' claims, and because such a comparison and examination may well lead to a resolution of this dispute short of full blown litigation, I had previously informally requested production of the Source Code, but I understand your client would not agree to that procedure.

Accordingly, I am enclosing herewith Defendant and Counterclaim Plaintiff's proposed First Request for Production. Since these are materials that Plaintiff would be obligated to produce as part of the Initial Disclosures under Rule 26(a)(1)(B), MultiMedia Dental asks that Plaintiff agree to the commencement of discovery to the extent of these limited Requests for Production and that Plaintiff agree to produce all responsive material or to serve any valid, non-frivolous objection within 14 days. Please let me have the favor of a response by the close of business on Wednesday, November 22, 2006.

Very truly yours,

Gregory J. Digel
